

Resources for I-SEARCH

Below are a list of resources to help you find information for your I-Search Project. Please refer to the sheet with the usernames and passwords to access the information

Research

- 1.) Destiny- (locate books, e-books, WebPath Express)

Access the Destiny Catalog (either from home or school)

From School-<http://destiny.avon.k12.ct.us/>

From Home-<http://destiny.avon.k12.ct.us:8081/>

- 2.) WebPath Express-through Destiny catalog-reliable credible information

3.) ABC-CLIO Database-there are a variety of platforms that you could use or just do a search for your topic. Read the description of the content to see which one might best provide the information you need.

4.) Gale Databases-there are a variety of platforms that you could use or just do a search for your topic. Read the description of the content to see which one might best provide the information you need.

- 5.) Avon Free Public Library-Information and Databases Section
History, Biography, & Genealogy

- 6.) iConn.org-One Search
Academic Search Premier
EBSCO Host

Academic Search Engines: -Here are some other sites which may be helpful to locate reliable, credible information:

Finding Dulcinea

World History-Infotopia

Sweetsearch

Infotrek

Digital Public Library of America

KidsClick

MLA Citations:

1.) See the Google Slides Presentations on how to format your MLA Paper:

Microsoft Word

Google Doc

2.) MLA in-text citations-<http://www.lcc.edu/library/help/citation/mla-in-text.pdf>

Purdue OWL-<https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/>

Easy Bib-MLA Reference Guide-http://media.easybib.com/ebook/mla_guide.pdf

MLA Sample Paper-<http://academictips.org/mla-format/mla-format-sample-paper/>